

Minimum Wage

By Stanley Guard

I think raising the minimum wage will help people that live in the City of Milwaukee. If a person is receives a decent salary then that person can do good things for his or her family. So I think that raising minimum wage is a good thing for everybody.

Being Famous

By Stanley Guard

No, I would not like to be famous. Famous people have no privacy. Their lives are put on center stage. The only good thing would be the money. But if I were famous I would be famous for being a positive person who brings jobs and education to the community.

What Makes Me Angry

By Stanley Guard

Not knowing how to do something like filling out a job application, or not being able to read a book that could help me learn how to do the things I can't do made me angry. So I went back to school to learn how to be a better reader and a better speller. These skills will help me become a leader in my community. I can also help the people in my community become gainfully employed.
